If you are chosen to serve in this position, you must be prepared to commit to our expectations of your time and attention. As a member of the 52nd Royal Court of Neptune, you will find an opportunity to learn, to have new experiences, to meet the leaders of Virginia Beach and Hampton Roads, and to broaden your horizons. PRINCE/PRINCESS RESPONSIBILITIES

Neptune Festival Princes and Princesses are expected to be available for ALL scheduled events, including rehearsals. This schedule is subject to additions and revisions, among them will be wardrobe fittings and events which cannot yet be scheduled.

THERE WILL BE A MANDATORY MEETING IN JANUARY 2026 AT THE NEPTUNE FESTIVAL OFFICE FOR ALL PRINCES AND PRINCESSES. WE WILL SELECT A DATE WHEN ALL ARE AVAILABLE.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS:

1. The commitment one makes as a member of the Neptune Festival Royal Court is a serious one. In addition to the fun and excitement of festival events, there is preparation, rehearsal time, and energy involved. Before accepting this responsibility, one should have a full understanding of what is expected. All questions should be directed to Mrs. Krista Booth at the Neptune Festival office at (757) 498-0215 prior to making a decision to enter the selection process.
2. It is important that all Royal Court members attend all meetings, rehearsals, and fittings as requested. Festival officials will not be able to accommodate each person's individual commitments; therefore, each person is expected to arrange their schedule to prioritize these responsibilities. Promptness and preparedness are expected.
3. At all times, members of the Court should display conduct befitting their status as a representative of the festival, their community, and themselves.
4. The Parent Consent form should be read jointly with parent(s) before signing.

PARENT AND APPLICANT PROCEDURE AND POLICY

Young gentlemen and ladies who are selected as Princes and Princesses for the Neptune Festival Royal Court are consistently among those whose activity schedules are full. They are members of sports teams, school committees, clubs, and community groups. Their very involvement in such is a part of what prepares them for the role of Neptune Festival Prince or Princess. Festival officials recognize that these commitments are important and a valuable part of each young adult's life. However, these young people and their parents who accept an invitation to join the Royal Court must understand the promise they are making. The festival cannot meet its obligations and fulfill its duties without such an understanding.

Therefore, we wish to make clear our expectations. Princes and Princesses are required to attend ALL functions whether scheduled at this time or added later. Unfortunately, all activities cannot be set this far ahead; however, the dates for the Neptune Coronation Gala and Boardwalk Weekend have been set and are NOT ADJUSTABLE. The Neptune Coronation Gala is scheduled for March 21, 2026, and all Princes and Princesses must be available for a 9:00am rehearsal and for the Gala itself later that afternoon and evening. The Boardwalk Weekend dates are scheduled for September 25, 2026 – September 27, 2026, and Princes and Princesses must stay with us at the Hilton Virginia Beach Oceanfront Hotel for the entire weekend. Unless excused by a Festival official, absence from an event constitutes a violation of one's contract.

We ask that you please consider this policy carefully when making the decision to enter the selection process and/or accepting an invitation to the Royal Court.

EXPENSES

Prince/Princess expenses are significant and are primarily borne by the festival. They include meals, refreshments, transportation, wardrobe, and hotel accommodations (for Boardwalk Weekend). There will be some expenses which must be borne by the participant.

A fee of $100 is assessed to each Prince and Princess to cover some costs. This fee is due and payable upon acceptance into the Royal Court. Alterations to Royal Court clothing, if necessary, are the responsibility of the participant.

Parents/guardians of the Princes and Princesses are responsible for their own expenses at Neptune Festival events.

Please be acquainted with the requirements noted in the "Prince / Princess Responsibilities" prior to signing the Parental Consent Form.
